

National Russian Tumbler Club

Hall of Fame Award

The Hall of Fame Award is one of the NRTC's highest honors. The NRTC may award Hall of Fame honors to members who have...

1. Been active for ten years or more.
2. They have also inspired both new and old members
3. Helped with good breeding stock and/or advice.
4. Recipients should have freely offered their time and help and be an inspiration to their fellow breeders.
5. Shown loyalty to the club and good sportsmanship.
6. Serving as an officer helps but is not necessary to win.
7. Promoted the Russian Tumbler at as many shows around the country as they can.

When the club feels a person qualifies for this award, membership should nominate and vote for the member nominated. A plaque will be presented to the winner at a NRTC meet
